Classes & Event Information

Class & Event information Classes will be held in our store at 221 S Santa Fe Ave unless noted in the description otherwise. All classes/events require preregistration so that we can prepare enough seats and kits to allow everybody to have a fun time. Some classes/events do have a maximum number of participants but we will gladly always create a wait list and notify you if need be. Our classes change monthly and each class contains techniques, theories or product that perhaps you may not be familiar with. Read the description thoroughly to better understand what you will be doing in class.
